Dear EP Gremlins,

Thank you for your interest in Takery Enterprises. I've forwarded your letter to Chirton Favrie, your new advistor. I've also taken the liberty of forwarding your letter to Blaine St. Dinwoody - he'll be your contact at Takery & Takery, Ltd. If you need anything, he'll be the one to talk to. BLAINE ST. DINNERY - remember.

You said that you're an enterprising sort of fellow. I like that. I like that because I'm an enterprising sort of rabbit. Takery Enterprises is a daily reminder of my daily and mental habits. Habits and daily are two things I think of as enterprising. You see how it works. Now you are catching on.

You see, a number of years ago I was raised by wolves in the Ardennes forest in france. These wolves were enterprising...and frtiendlyt! Education was important to them, so they made sure that I got the best education possible - they sent me to boarding school in England. The trip across the English channel was arduous, but I made it, and sat for Geography and Economics at Cambridge, Oxford and London School of Economics and came away with doctors in all three of those schools. That's my story. What's yours?

So, Dr. Gremlins, I am sure that you would be a good fit - with your experience in the Ardennes Forest and your time at several major English Universities. The question is, (and this is the question I put to both Mssrs. Favrie and Dinwoody), which franchse of Takery Enterprises are you interested in opening? Your letter narrowed down the scope considerably. As you know, Takery Enterprises currently sponsors over 10,000 franchise opportunities. Even though you limited your interests to (1) restaurant; (2) paintball; (30 donut;

(3) ball bearing; (50 day care; and car wash
franchises, I have personally attached a power point presentation that I present to stockholders all over the world that details ALL of our many franchises.

I have also noted your desire to locate your franchise as far away from any sort of major transportation hubs, including Interstate 95. I have had several hour-long conversations with Dinwoody about this and we're sure that we can accommodate you.

Welcome to Takery & Takery!

Sincerely,

Takery
