Dear Mister Melman,

HAHA Did you know your name is almost like "Mister Mail Man" Hah ha ha?

That's a little joke I like to open up with. Loosen things up? Ha ha. First and foremost, welcome aboard SS Takery & Takery! I'll be your advising captain. Captain Chirton!

We like to liven things up. Anywow.

I suppose you should take advantage of our member's challenge program. We team you with the utmost best competition. Two weekends a month, four months a year. Physical challenges. Teamwork skills. Develop specialized negotiation voices. Do you remember that Beverly Hills Cop? Our member's challenge program yields results! Given your height advantage and the geographical location of I-95, you will certainly achieve franchisee success! Not to exclude:

- Goal Assessment, Goal Achievement
- Personal Finances
- Business Cards
- Takery Cutouts
- Jean Cutoff Samples

By now you should have received our power point presentation. Please review this item. Due to your interest in restaurant achievement as well as other things, I would suggest: WHY NOT A RESTAURANT WITH TEXT MESSAGING INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES? Also I would suggest: FORTUNE TELLING IS VERY POPULAR AS IS CHILD NAME PREDICTION.

Bye!

PS: Do you remember that When Harry Met Sally? I'll have what she's having! HAHA
